

GIVE A LITTLE RESPECT

Respect and tolerance is a two way street

Antisocial behaviour includes:

- Vandalism, graffiti and fly-posting
- Nuisance neighbours
- Intimidating groups taking over public spaces
- Hate related incidents
- Dealing and buying drugs on the street
- Dumping rubbish and abandoned cars
- Begging
- Antisocial drinking
- Misuse of fireworks
- Reckless driving of mini-motos, quadbikes and other vehicles

Antisocial behaviour isn't:

- Children playing
- Neighbours doing DIY (at reasonable times of the day)
- Groups of people in the street or in parks, unless they are being rowdy, abusive, causing damage or committing other crimes

If you are affected by antisocial behaviour call your local council or 101
